New Business – Julio requested from the members present what they want to get out of our quarterly meetings.

Jay Burzlaff offered he likes the quarterly meetings and appreciates that members host the meetings in their home. It allows members to see how other members have set up their bird area. Kim Gibbons is looking forward to learning breeding ideas from veteran breeders and is also for discussion and lessons on successful breeding programs.

A general discussion was held with all members participating on breeding and banding techniques used by all.

A motion to adjourn was made by Gavin, Second by Ricardo. Motion Carried.

The meeting was followed by a presentation and discussion on Nutrition presented by Julio Valella.
